

CHRISTIAN ASCHAUER

Independent Arbitrator

Education:

1997 Doctor in Law, University of Graz

1993 Master in Law, University of Graz

Admission to the bar:

1999 in Vienna (Austria)

Professional experience:

Since 2024: Member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration

2017 - 2023: Member of the Council of the Milan Chamber of Arbitration

Since 2016: Independent Arbitrator

Since 2014: Professor of arbitration law, University of Graz

2006 - 2012 Lecturer on civil procedure, University of Graz

2000 - 2016 Partner, ARP Andreas Reiner & Partners

1996 – 1999 Associate, Vienna

1991 – 1996 Research Fellow, University of Graz

Arbitration-related experience:

More than 70 proceedings as sole arbitrator, chairman, co-arbitrator or counsel in domestic and international arbitral proceedings, including under the rules of the ICC, VIAC, Milan Chamber of Arbitration, DIS, SCC, LCIA and UNCITRAL. Most of Christian Aschauer's arbitrations have a foreign nexus, with parties from a broad range of countries, including extra-European countries.

Fields or specialization

International arbitration proceedings in particular in the fields of engineering, energy (oil and gas), telecommunications, construction, joint ventures, international purchase agreements, pharmaceutical industry, M&A and R&D, proceedings to set aside arbitral awards as well as enforcement proceedings; international probate proceedings.

Memberships:

AIA Italian Arbitration Association

ASA Swiss Arbitration Association

arbaut Austrian Arbitration Association

Chamber of Arbitration of Milan

DIS German Arbitration Institute

ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR

LIS Liechtenstein Arbitration Association

UNCITRAL Working Group II – Task force technology related dispute resolution

Languages:

German, English, Italian, French

Biographical details:

Citizenship: Austrian, year of birth 1968

Vienna, July 2024