

Dr Christian Aschauer

Admission to the bar:

1999, Vienna, Austria.

Areas of specialisation:

International arbitration, particularly in the sectors of energy, telecommunications, construction and engineering contracts, M&A, joint ventures, international purchase and sales contracts, proceedings to enforce arbitral awards and proceedings to set aside arbitral awards.

Professional experience:

2016 Independent Arbitrator
since 2014 Professor of arbitration law, University of Graz
2006 - 2012 Lecturer on civil procedure law, University of Graz
2000 - 2016 Partner, ARP Andreas Reiner & Partners
1996 – 1999 Associate, Vienna
1995 – 1996 Lecturer, University of Graz
1991 – 1996 Research Fellow, University of Graz

International arbitration-related experience:

Sole arbitrator, chairman, co-arbitrator or counsel in domestic and international arbitral proceedings under the rules of the ICC, VIAC, DIS, Camera Arbitrale di Milano, Camera Arbitrale di Reggio Emilia, Permanent Arbitration Court attached to the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Serbia, UNCITRAL as well as ad hoc proceedings. Almost all of the proceedings have a foreign nexus, with parties from a broad range of countries, in particular from EU, CEE, and the Americas.

Education:

1997 Doctor in Law, University of Graz
1993 Master in Law, University of Graz

Memberships:

ASA Swiss Arbitration Association
arbaut Österreichische Vereinigung für Schiedsgerichtsbarkeit
DIS German Institution of Arbitration
ICC Austria
Member of the ICC Task Force on emergency arbitrator proceedings
Member of the ICC Working Group on Task Force on Maximizing the Probative Value of Witness Evidence

Languages:

German, English, French, Italian

Biographical details:

Citizenship: Austrian, year of birth 1968