

CHRISTIAN ASCHAUER

Independent Arbitrator

Admission to the bar:

1999, Vienna, Austria.

Areas of specialisation:

International arbitration, particularly in the sectors of engineering, M&A, joint ventures, telecommunications, pharma, distributorship agreements, construction, proceedings to enforce / to set aside arbitral awards.

Professional experience:

2017 - 2020: Member of the Council of the Milan Chamber of Arbitration

Since 2016: Independent Arbitrator

2014 - 2019: Professor of arbitration law, University of Graz

2006 - 2012 Lecturer on civil procedure, University of Graz

2000 - 2016 Partner, ARP Andreas Reiner & Partners

1996 – 1999 Associate, Vienna

1991 – 1996 Research Fellow, University of Graz

International arbitration-related experience:

More than 50 proceedings as sole arbitrator, chairman, co-arbitrator or counsel in domestic and international arbitral proceedings, including under the rules of the ICC, VIAC, Milan Chamber of Arbitration, DIS, SCC, Serbian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and UNCITRAL. Most of Christian Aschauer's arbitrations have a foreign nexus, with parties from a broad range of countries, including extra-European countries.

Education:

1997 Doctor in Law, University of Graz

1993 Master in Law, University of Graz

Memberships:

ASA Swiss Arbitration Association

arbaut Österreichische Vereinigung für Schiedsgerichtsbarkeit

DIS German Institution of Arbitration

ICC Austria Nominations Committee

Liechtensteiner Schiedsverein

Member of the ICC Task Force on Maximizing the Probative Value of Witness Evidence

Languages:

German, English, Italian, French (has conducted arbitrations in all 4 languages)

Biographical details:

Citizenship: Austrian, year of birth 1968